Lane End Cottage in Warkworth - Coquet Cottages Lane End Cottage in Warkworth is a sensitively restored 19th century cottage, located next to the riverbank with river views from most of the windows. An abundance of wildlife can be seen from the cottage or from a seat on the riverbank next to the cottage. Seals at high tide, herons, foxes, swans and ducks, salmon leaping, returning terns and kingfishers can be seen. Location of Lane End | Sally's Cottages Lane End is opposite the Brook House Inn (just over the little road to Boot). Please note: if you have satellite navigation, the recommended route often appears to be over Wrynose and Hardknott passes which can be very lovely but are incredibly steep (England's steepest road with gradients of up to one in three), windy and narrow. Top Of Lane Cottage - Sugar & Loaf Top of the lane cottage is very special. Its location is breathtaking and the views will stay with us for ever. The electric blankets were essential and the beds cosy and comfy. Its location is breathtaking and the views will stay with us for ever.
